POSITION PAPER:

AUTHOR IDENTIFICATION USING THE OPEN RESEARCHER AND CONTRIBUTOR ID

Based on the ORCID DE project this position paper is the result of the collaboration of three working groups of the German Initiative for Network Information (DINI) and is intended to provide institutions with both a strategic and a practical handbook.*

- The NECESSITY and CHALLENGES for the use of AUTHOR IDENTIFICATION in the scientific publication process are first described from the point of view of the various stakeholders involved.
- ORCID is presented as a example of a system for author identification and examined from VARIOUS PERSPECTIVES (e.g. history & legal aspects).
- The APPROACHES and BENEFITS of author identification using ORCID are finally discussed.
- TECHNICAL ASPECTS of the implementation of ORCID are examined before a final outlook is given on the FUTURE DEVELOPMENT of ORCID.

ORCID DE 2

CONSOLIDATION OF THE ORCID INFORMATION INFRASTRUCTURE IN GERMANY

In the past three years the ORCID DE project provided significant support for the growth and dissemination of ORCID in Germany.*

If granted, the planned ORCID DE 2 project will:

- consolidate the ORCID NETWORK IN GERMANY
- expand the support for PUBLISHERS and RESEARCH FUNDING BODIES interested in ORCID
- conduct a survey on ORGANIZATIONAL IDENTIFIER
